

HOUSE PATRONS

Chisholm House

Caroline Chisholm was a courageous advocate for migrant women and families in 19th-century Australia, helping them find housing, employment, and support. Her legacy of compassion and practical service continues to inspire our Chisholm House students.

Dominic House

St Dominic de Guzman founded the Dominican Order, devoting his life to preaching, study, and service. His leadership, wisdom, and care for others are central to the values of Dominic House.

MacKillop House

Mary Helen MacKillop also known as St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, Australia's first saint, dedicated her life to educating the poor and standing up for those in need. Her unwavering faith, determination, and compassion guide the spirit of MacKillop House.

Mannix House

Archbishop Daniel Mannix was a bold and influential leader who championed the rights and funding of Catholic schools across Australia. His strength, vision, and dedication to faith make him a powerful role model for our Mannix House community.

McCormack House

Sister Irene McCormack devoted her life to education and serving the poor, both in Australia and in Peru. Her courage, compassion, and selfless service are values we uphold in McCormack House.

Rice House

Blessed Edmund Rice worked tirelessly to provide education for poor and marginalised boys in Ireland, founding schools rooted in justice and faith. His deep commitment to service and equality inspires the mission of Rice House.
