

Direct Debit Request Service Agreement

The direct debit service agreement outlines how each payment option is processed, as well as your rights and obligations under the agreement.

Direct Debit Options

If you choose the:

Full Pay option: we will automatically deduct the full balance of your term statement on the due date each term

Even Pay option: we will average the balance of your term statement over five payments for each term

Budget Pay option: please use the direct debit calculator (located on the Burgmann Website) to calculate the amount to be deducted on a fortnightly or monthly basis year round, commencing in January for 26 fortnightly payments or 12 monthly payments. This option can commence at any time.

Your rights

Burgmann Anglican School will give you at least 14 days notice in writing if there are any changes to the terms of the agreement, unless otherwise agreed.

All information you give Burgmann Anglican School about your bank accounts will be kept in the strictest confidence between your financial institution, and Burgmann Anglican School. Burgmann Anglican School will not pass the information on to anyone else.

If you wish to alter, defer, cancel or stop your direct debit at any time, you must notify Burgmann Anglican School at least five (5) business days before the date the direct debit deduction is due to be made so the necessary changes can be arranged. Burgmann Anglican School will not draw from your account until the agreed new direct debit deduction date.

A direct debit application remains in force until it is cancelled.

If you believe Burgmann Anglican School has drawn on your account incorrectly, please contact Burgmann us on 02 6255 7700 so the matter can be resolved. Burgmann Anglican School will make every attempt to resolve the dispute within five business days.

Your obligations

Direct debit may not be available on all types of savings or cheque accounts, so you should check with your financial institution before completing the direct debit application.

Once you have agreed to use direct debit for payment of your Burgmann Anglican School account you must have sufficient funds in your nominated direct debit account on the direct debit deduction date to cover your agreed payment deduction. If there are insufficient funds in your account on the direct debit deduction date, your financial institution may charge a fee that you will be obliged to pay.

If your financial institution rejects the deduction, we may re-draw on your account after five (5) business days or contact you to arrange alternate payment. You may incur a charge to cover administration costs and your direct debit arrangements may be cancelled without further notice.

If you change your direct debit account you will need to complete a new Direct Debit Request Form. You can download a form from the Burgmann Anglican School website, or collect from the front office of either campus.
