

COVID-19 Parent Involvement Program (PIP) – Declaration of Hours

Due to the restrictions associated with COVID-19, many parents have not been able to complete their PIP hours despite their intention to do so. In good faith, Covenant is allowing parents to claim a PIP credit if they can confirm the following:

- Their intention to contribute hours in 2020 consistent with their 2019 claim on file
- New parents are encouraged to complete the form below based on anticipated involvement in 2020
- Willingness to contribute hours later in 2020 should the opportunity arise.

Parent Names (first & surname): _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Children’s Names: _____

Intended PIP Hours - Please use the space below to indicate your completed or intended PIP hours for 2020.

Date	Area of service (description)	Hours
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Total hours claimed on this form (6, 12, 18, 24 hours only) Claiming _____ hours
(When this form is received, a credit of $180 for each 6 hours of completed/intended PIP will be applied to your fee account up to a maximum of $720 for 24 hours for the year)

How does the credit apply?
You can elect to have the PIP credited to your fee account or donated to our tax-deductible Building or Bursary Funds. If you would like to donate this to one of these tax-deductible funds, please tick the relevant box.
* A tax-deductible receipt will be sent to you.

- Building Fund *
 Bursary Fund *
 Credit my account

By signing below, I hereby declare that the intended PIP hours I am claiming for credit would have been completed if not for COVID-19.

Parent’s Name: _____ Date: _____

Signed: _____