1. Purpose

1.1 English Language Proficiency Test Scores

The School requires that an Australian Education Assessment Services (AEAS) test be completed prior to an interview and offer taking place. Students must submit an AEAS test, with other required documentation, at the time of application. An AEAS is test is required to be completed for all students applying from overseas, irrespective of their visa status. Students who have studied onshore for 6 months or less may also be required to undertake an AEAS test prior to interview.

In the event that the student is unable to attend an AEAS testing venue in their home country, the School may consider another form of English Language proficiency testing. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis.

1.2 AEAS Scores

The School will be guided by the AEAS score and weeks of intensive language recommended, as listed on their website. The following AEAS scores are required for enrolment:

SCORE	LEVEL	WEEKS Upper Secondary School Entry Years 10-12*	WEEKS Lower Secondary School Entry Years 7-9*	WEEKS Primary School Entry Years 4-6*
0-25	Beginners	40-48	30-40	12-20
26-35	Elementary	30-40	20-30	6-12
36-45	Pre-Intermediate	20-30	12-20	4-6
46-60	Intermediate	12-20	8-12	0-4
61-70	Upper Intermediate	8-12	4-8	0
71-79	Pre-Advanced	4-8	0	0

Year Levels are based on Australian education system.*

Should the AEAS report recommend several weeks of intensive language (ELICOS) to be completed prior to commencing or continuing mainstream studies, the School may consider a conditional offer, pending progress at an ELICOS Program. Students who require more than 20 weeks of intensive language will not be considered for an offer of place. The School will also consider other results within the AEAS test (such as the Maths Reasoning, Non-Verbal Reasoning and the essay) in combination with the school reports.

Reports from the ELICOS Centre must indicate satisfactory progress, positive behaviours and approach to study and excellent attendance. Should this not be the case, the conditional offer of place may be withdrawn.
