Mosman Church of England Preparatory School

Job Opportunities:
Primary Classroom Teacher Position

Primary Classroom Teacher Position, Commencing Beginning Term 1 2027 (18 January) - Maternity Leave position for 2027 school year with possibility of extension.

MOSMAN PREP is seeking a passionate, innovative teacher who is committed to providing an excellent education for primary school aged boys.

The successful applicant will demonstrate highly developed communication skills, a commitment to relationship, community and collaborative practice. They will also need to be skilled in supporting dynamic learning experiences and maintaining a positive, nurturing environment. They will be confident in collaborating with other staff to deliver rich, differentiated learning tasks to improve student outcomes.

They will actively support the vision and values of the School, including the Christian character and purpose.

Statement of Commitment to Child Safety

At Mosman Preparatory School, we are committed to ensuring that our recruitment practices create a safe and supportive environment for all students. We recognise that children and young people are to be valued and respected and we expect all employees, volunteers and contractors to demonstrate an ongoing and proactive commitment to the safety and wellbeing of all persons, with a specific focus on the safeguarding of children. It is the expectation of Mosman Preparatory School that a successful applicant has an understanding of children's diverse needs and that all interactions with children and young people foster and demonstrate a commitment to a supportive and child safe culture.

The appointment of successful applicants will be subject to rigorous employment screening for child-related employment.

Selection Criteria

The successful candidates will demonstrate the following competencies:

- Willingness to actively support the Christian ethos of the School.
- High social and emotional intelligence, and a commitment to relationship and collaborative practice.
- A passion for and understanding of boys' education, and energy to translate vision into practice.
- Firm knowledge of, and experience with, the NESA Curriculum, and ability to design and implement innovative, evidence-based learning experiences.
- Ability to solve problems, set priorities, support others, show initiative and be flexible.
- Strong oral and written communication skills.
- Willingness to be engaged in extracurricular activities.
- Commitment to high professional standards and ethical behaviour.
- Integration of student data to inform teaching and establish individual learning goals.
