

SCHOOL BASED Hairdressing Apprenticeship

year 10 or 11 School based apprenticeship position available

Join our Studio Team!

Are you looking at starting a career in hairdressing? Or maybe you are unsure, but want to see what it is all about? For The Love of Hair is a super nurturing and supportive Studio looking to welcome new members.

Are we looking for you?

Apprentices: Are you pumped to start hairdressing? Are you looking for an environment that will support you to learn the foundations for an amazing career in hairdressing? If you love people as much as you love hair, For The Love of Hair is the place for you. Talk to us about opportunities.

Apply if you want to join a Studio that:

- Prioritises nurturing and wellbeing
- Is fun and a great place to work
- Will be a daily reminder of why you love hairdressing
- Is run by an amazing senior stylist that loves what she does and will always back your success (read: FTLOH is a competition-free zone and you are given full permission to shine and bring ALL your talent and care to your craft. Yay!)
- Has flexible working hours – we understand school days can be limited with subjects, we work minimal weekends, so the hours would be afternoon/nights throughout the week (but not too late nights)

How to Apply

Send your resume, a quick note about why you're a cut above, and maybe a photo of your best hair creation to christine@fortheLoveofhair.com.au . Let's chat about how you can style your future with us.
