

Student Houses

Wesley House

Named after John Wesley and his mother, Susannah. John Wesley led England's greatest spiritual awakening, convicting and redeeming a nation. In his pursuit of holiness and to preach at outdoor evangelistic meetings, he covered much of the country repeatedly on horseback. His mother, through her faith and zeal, raised John, and brother Charles, to be world-changers with the Gospel.

Colour: Yellow

Motto: Strong and Courageous - Guided by the cross of Christ they never miss their mark.

Symbol: Crocodile

Graham House

Named after Billy Graham and wife Ruth. Billy was a great evangelist of the twentieth century and preached in person in more than 80 countries. He reached millions with the Gospel through his extensive use of television and radio, focusing on proclaiming the Christian faith to non-believers. Billy was known for his integrity, humility and his delight in God's word influencing lives and winning souls for Jesus Christ. Ruth was his confidante and companion in their Christian work.

Colour: Red

Motto: Bold and Brave - A powerful and unstoppable force for the glory of God.

Symbol: Lion

Elliot House

Named after Jim and Elisabeth Elliot. Jim Elliot was a missionary in Latin America, martyred for his faith in the unexplored parts of Ecuador. He and four companions were trying to bring the life-changing message of God's love to the Auca Indians.

His wife, Elisabeth, continued to reach out to the tribe after his death.

Colour: Green

Motto: Soaring with Strength - Soaring far above the rest, directed by the light from heaven above.

Symbol: Eagle

Booth House

Named after William and Catherine Booth, the founders of the Salvation Army. The couple set out, in 1861, to take the Gospel to the streets of England to reach folk who did not conform to traditional church settings. They used street meetings, parades and marching bands to attract the poor, the destitute and the addicted with the love of Christ. Both were famous and fiery preachers and set their hearts on following God's leading regardless of much political and religious opposition.

Colour: Blue

Motto: Swift and Fierce - Passionate in sharing Christ, breaking through impossible barriers.

Symbol: Leopard

