REPORTING CONSIDERATIONS Based on the concerns, the following actions will be taken:
Do the concerns require a mandatory report of sexual abuse, suspected sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse to a police officer under sections 366 or 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 ?	YES	NO	The student was not subjected to sexual abuse, suspected sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse by another person as defined in section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 .
Do the concerns require a mandatory report of a reportable suspicion to the department responsible for child safety (sexual abuse or physical abuse) under section 13E of the Child Protection Act 1999 ?	YES	NO	The concern is not a reportable suspicion under section 13E (2) of the Child Protection Act 1999 (Qld) because: the child has not suffered, is not suffering, and is not at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse, and/or the child has a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.
Do the concerns require a report of a reasonable suspicion that a child may be in need of protection caused by emotional/psychological abuse or neglect to the department responsible for child safety under section 13A of the Child Protection Act 1999 .	YES	NO	The concern is not a reasonable suspicion that a child may be in need of protection under section 10 of the Child Protection Act 2001 because: the child has not suffered significant harm, is not suffering significant harm, and is not at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm, and/or the child has a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

If neither a report to a police officer or the department responsible for child safety is made, record a brief rationale here.
Do the concerns indicate that a referral to Family and Child Connect may be beneficial?	YES – with consent YES – without consent (Headmaster only)
