Peter Carnley Anglican Community School (PCACS) is a school of The Anglican Schools Commission (Inc.) (ASC). The School opened in January 2007 in Wellard and caters for coeducational students from Kindergarten to Year 12. The School has a specialised Early Learning campus at Calista catering for Kindergarten to Year 1 students, whilst the Wellard campus caters for Year 2 to Year 12 students.

PCACS seeks to provide excellence in education, stressing high academic standards and the development of individual potential in a dynamic, caring and Christian environment.

The following areas are emphasised:

- Academic Excellence.
- A holistic education, with Gospel values as their foundation.
- Individual care of students in a safe campus environment.
- Excellence in teaching and learning.
- Quality and relevant Christian Religious Studies and worship opportunities.
- High behavioural standards and expectations.
- High achievement in traditional academic subjects.
- Relevant vocational educational offerings.
- The development of high ethical standards and self-discipline.
- The development of individual student potential.
- The development of Christian character and leadership potential.

PCACS students are given an education to prepare them to become contributing and successful members of the community and potential future leaders of that community. The School aims to nurture each child so he or she is able to accept responsibility, demonstrate commitment and initiative, and be self-disciplined whilst showing sensitivity to the needs of others. The School aims to stimulate students' intellectual curiosity; increase the capacity to tackle and solve problems; think creatively and logically and have the ability to work with others. Students receive a Christian education and are encouraged to use it as a basis for living. The School expects students to show the highest possible standards of courtesy, dress and behaviour.
