Note

- (1) A discount of 2% is applicable if the annual tuition fee is paid in full on or before 31 October 2025.
- (2) Monthly instalments are payable in ten equal instalments from October to July.
- (3) Annual tuition fees cover the Early Learning Program during term time only. Holiday program fees are $163 (daily) or $813 (weekly).
- (4) Term Time – The annual tuition fee applies to the Early Learning Program during term time only, scheduled from 9am to 3pm, Monday through Friday (excluding public holidays and staff professional learning days when the Centre is closed). This fee also provides access to the Early Learning Before Care program, which runs from 7:30am to 9am. Parents who need supervision after 3pm should book into the Aftercare program using the Xplor Home App. A minimum of 24 hours' notice is required to cancel a booking due to staffing requirements; otherwise, the full session fee will be charged. A late fee of $15 per fifteen minutes applies for children collected after 6pm.
- (5) Holiday Program – Runs weekdays during school holidays from 7:30am to 6pm (except public holidays). Registration information is sent out one month before each term break. You will be charged for all registered days, even if your child does not attend. Late pickups after 6pm incur a $15 fee for every fifteen minutes.
- (6) Ruyton is participating in the 'Free Kindergarten Subsidy' program from 2025. Victorian Government's Free Kinder rebate from Ruyton Girls' School in regular instalments over the year, up to a value of $2,101 for both Three-Year-Old Kindergarten and Four-Year-Old Pre-Prep programs. Specific conditions apply and parents are required to complete a Funded Kindergarten place declaration. Please contact the Director of Early Learning for further information.

REBATES AND SUBSIDIES

Child Care Subsidy – ELC only

As the ELC is an approved child care service, an entitlement is available for parents to access the Child Care Subsidy. Parents should make their own enquiries as conditions apply.

Camps, Sports and Excursions Fund (CSEF)

This fund helps with paying for eligible Students to attend school camps, sports and excursions. Parents should visit services.dhhs.vic.gov.au/camps-sports-and-excursions-fund to determine eligibility prior to contacting the School's Finance Department.

2026 BUSINESS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

School tuition fees and charges are payable in accordance with these terms and conditions and Ruyton's schedule of tuition fees as published from time to time for each school year. The tuition fees and charges may be varied and increased by Ruyton from time to time and in its sole discretion. The school reserves the right to change the Business Terms and Conditions from time to time.

The Fees and Charges (Domestic Students) and these Business Terms and Conditions should be read in conjunction with the Enrolment Agreement and the School's policies including but not limited to the Enrolment Policy, the Concerns and Complaints Policy, and the Privacy Policy. These can be found at www.ruyton.vic.edu.au.

Withdrawal of a student: One full term's notice in writing must be given to the Principal prior to the withdrawal of a student from the School, otherwise one full term's tuition fee in lieu of such notice is payable.

Cancellation of enrolment: Ruyton may cancel the Student's enrolment at any time by giving notice of such cancellation to the Parent on any of the following grounds:

- The Student's unsatisfactory conduct, behaviour or attitude while attending school.
- The Student's school or class attendance is unacceptable.
- The Student engages in misconduct or breaches a policy of Ruyton which the Principal considers to be serious, including a breach of any student code of conduct (including any such conduct that occurs outside school hours and off school premises where there is a clear and close connection between the school and the Student's conduct).
- The Student's academic or social progress is such that, in the opinion of the Principal, the Student is not benefiting from the curriculum and programs provided by Ruyton.
- A mutually beneficial relationship of trust and cooperation between the Parent and Ruyton or any of its staff has broken down such that the ability of Ruyton to provide a meaningful education to the Student is adversely compromised.
- The behaviour or conduct of the Parent towards Ruyton or to any of its staff breaches any parent code of conduct.
- Circumstances exist whereby the ongoing enrolment of the Student is considered by the Principal to be untenable or is not in the best interests of the Student or Ruyton.

Leave of Absence: A Student who takes leave of absence from the School, and requires their enrolment to be maintained so they can return at a later date, must continue to pay the fees for the period of their absence.

Billing dates: Fee statements are issued four times year. Tuition fees are invoiced in four equal instalments as close as practicable to the first day of October, February, May and August, along with any additional charges owing. Additional charges incurred after August will be billed in October.

Payment date: Fees and charges are due by the date noted on each fee statement. Methods of payment include credit card, BPAY, electronic bank transfer or direct deposit to Ruyton's nominated account at a bank (preferred for cash payments).

Payment by instalment: Tuition fees may be paid in ten equal instalments from October to July, by direct debit or credit card. The regular monthly payment covers tuition fees only, additional charges will be billed in line with regular billing dates.

Early payment: A discount of 2% is applicable where annual tuition fees are paid in full on or before the specified date. Payment is limited to one year of tuition fees in advance. Please contact the Business Office at accounts@ruyton.vic.edu.au if you wish to pay fees in advance.

Late payment: The amount outstanding on any school account after the due date for payment will accrue interest from the due date until it is paid in full at the rate for the time being fixed under Section 2 of the Penalty Interest Rates Act 1983 (Vic). An administrative fee of $100 will be charged on accounts not paid within 14 days of billing. A further $100 for each 14-day period thereafter will be charged until full payment has been received. No student may commence a new term while any amount in relation to that student or any sibling is in arrears. Ruyton also reserves the right to cancel the enrolment of a student and any sibling if all amounts required to be paid in respect of the student have not been paid in full by the due date. Any failure, delay or indulgence by Ruyton in relation to outstanding fees and charges is not a waiver of its other rights in respect of the non-payment. Any expenses incurred by Ruyton in seeking to recover any outstanding fees and charges, including debt collection agency fees and legal fees (on an indemnity basis) may be claimed from and will be payable by the parents/guardians. An administration fee of $100 will be applied to any payment that is dishonored. Late payment fees do not apply to families paying by direct debit instalments.

Additional Charges: Some items are charged in addition to tuition fees. This includes but is not limited to:

- year level camps, outdoor education or activities programs and overseas tours; music lessons and hire of musical instruments; stationery resources for students in Prep-Year 4; subject or resource levies to cover the cost of standard materials used e.g., visual art/photography, online education resource subscriptions, and fees associated with Ruyton Early Learning's Holiday Program and afterschool care.
- credit card surcharges apply at a rate of 1.0%* and applied at time of payment. Additional charges (excluding surcharge) are itemised and included on the fee statement.
- Annual booklists: All students in Prep-Year 12 are issued with an annual booklist from the School's official supplier. The list details all resources and stationery requirements for the next year.
- Family discount: For families with more than two children at Ruyton a 20% discount off the scheduled tuition fees for the relevant school year, applies for each additional child.
- Goods and Services Tax (GST): Tuition fees are free of GST however the School is required to apply GST to some additional charges.
- Property losses: Students are responsible for any personal belongings brought to School. Ruyton will not be liable for any loss or theft of, or damage to, such belongings.
- The School receives Commonwealth and State Government Recurrent Grants for Students enrolled in Prep to Year 12. State Government funding is also attracted for the 4-year-old kindergarten program. A proportion of funds raised, or Fees collected by the School, may be used to support the operation of the Early Learning Centre.

Privacy: Standard Collection Notice

The School collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the School. This may be in writing, through technology systems, or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the School to provide schooling to students enrolled at the school, exercise its duty of care, and perform necessary associated administrative activities, which will enable students to take part in all the activities of the School.

Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the School's legal obligations, particularly to enable the School to discharge its duty of care. We will request contact details including the students current residential address, mobile number, email address, who to contact in emergency situations. Any changes to these details must be advised to the School within seven days of the change.

Laws governing or relating to the operation of a school require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health and Child Protection laws.

Health information about students is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) under the Privacy Act 1988. We may ask you to provide medical reports about students from time to time.

A student's enrolment may be delayed or prevented if the School cannot collect certain personal information. This is particularly so where the information is relevant to the health and safety of the student, other students and/or staff.

The School may disclose personal and sensitive information for educational, administrative and support purposes, including to:

- other schools and teachers at those schools; government departments (including for policy and funding purposes); medical practitioners; people providing educational, support and health services to the School, including specialist visiting teachers, coaches, volunteers, and counsellors; providers of learning and assessment tools;
- assessment and educational authorities, including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority (ACARA) and NAPLAN Test Administration Authorities (who will disclose it to the entity that manages the online platform for NAPLAN);

- agencies and other organisations to whom we are required to disclose personal information for education and research purposes;
- people providing administrative and financial services to the School; anyone you authorise the School to disclose information to; and anyone to whom the School is required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.

The School uses information management storage systems provided by third party service providers. Personal information is stored with and accessible by the third party service providers for the purpose of providing services to the School in connection with the systems.

The School may use online or 'cloud' service providers to store personal information and to provide services to the School that involve the use of personal information, such as services relating to communication, education and assessment applications. Some limited personal information may also be provided to these service providers to enable them to authenticate users that access their services. This personal information may reside on a cloud service provider's server which may be situated outside Australia.

The School's Privacy Policy, accessible on the School's website, sets out how parents or students may seek access to and correction of their personal information which the School has collected and holds.

However, access may be refused in certain circumstances such as where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the School's duty of care to the student, where students have provided information in confidence or where the School is otherwise required or authorised by law to refuse access. Any refusal will be notified in writing with reasons (unless, given by grounds for refusal, it would be unreasonable to provide reasons). The School's Privacy Policy also sets out how parents and students can make a complaint about a breach of the APPs and how the complaint will be handled.

The School may engage in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to make an appeal to you. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the School's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and similar news is published in School newsletters and publications, on our intranet, website and social media accounts. This may include photographs and videos of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and excursions, performing arts productions and performances. If you do not wish photographs or videos to be included in these publications, please contact the Director of Community Relations at community@ruyton.vic.edu.au so that your images, videos and other content are not selected for publication. If the School does not receive an objection from you, it will be assumed that you have consented to allow the School to use photographs (which may include images of yourself and/or your child or children) for the purposes described above. The School will seek your separate consent before publishing an image of yourself or your child or children where the name is disclosed in the publication or where the photo involves a specific activity, purpose or publication not identified above.

If you provide the School with personal information of others, such as doctors or emergency contacts, we encourage you to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the School and why.
