

Frank MacDonald MM MEMORIAL PRIZE

2025 STUDENT
INFORMATION SHEET

The Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize (FMMP) aims to commemorate and preserve the meaning of the ANZAC spirit in the Tasmanian community.

Frank MacDonald MM – born in Ulverstone in 1896 – was Tasmania's last World War I veteran and the last of the 40th Infantry Battalion raised in WWI.

He was responsible for repairing signal lines between battalion headquarters and trenches and received the Military Medal for working courageously under heavy fire. He also served in World War II and received the Legion of Honour in 1998.

Frank MacDonald passed away on 23 August 2003 at the age of 107.

RESEARCH QUESTIONS

Respond to one of these questions in an essay or digital format:

Question 1

The Battle of Fromelles was a 'spectacular defeat'. Why is it considered one of the most significant moments in Australia's military history?

Question 2

Approximately 3000 Australian women served as nurses during WW1. What is the significance of their service?

Entries close at 5.00pm on Friday 9 August 2024. For more information on how to enter, see over page.

THE PRIZE

Six Year 9 students will be selected from around Tasmania to take part in the 2025 Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize.

As part of the Prize you will:

- Go on a 10-day Study Tour in April 2025 (incorporating Anzac Day).
- Visit the Australian War Memorial in Canberra.
- Attend educational meetings held once a month in the lead up to the Study Tour (November 2024 to April 2025).

The Study Tour will travel to sites and landmarks of wartime in Belgium and France (subject to appropriate travel clearances and public health advice). The group will be led by a Tasmanian Government Tour Leader, and be accompanied by two teachers, a parliamentarian and an RSL representative.

The State Government will cover the cost of travel, transfers, travel insurance, accommodation, tour activities, and meals for each winner and the chaperones.

HOW TO ENTER

Your entry must be submitted to your school. If more than three entries are submitted then your school will conduct its own selection process to determine the final three entries to be sent in. Entries can only be submitted by individual students, not a group. Ask your teacher when your entry must be submitted for judging at school level.

Schools and home education students are to email entries with cover sheet to:

learning.events@decyp.tas.gov.au

Or mail entries to the Project Officer:

The Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize
DECYP Learning Events
Level 1, 199 Collins Street
Hobart TAS 7000

The Project Officer must receive all entries by 5:00pm on Friday 9 August 2024.

All entrants will receive a Certificate of Participation. Winners of the Prize receive a Certificate of Excellence and their schools will receive a plaque from the RSL for the year of the award.

All winning entries will be published on the Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize website.

ENTRY FORMAT

Essay: Maximum 1,500 words (not including references or quotes).

Digital, Video or Audio Presentation: 10 minute maximum running time.

Submit your presentation on a USB or provide a link to an online file.

Entries other than essay format must be accompanied by a written statement of up to 500 words. This will enable the presentation to stand on its own merits and be compared fairly with an essay.

The statement should include:

- Your conclusions on your chosen research question
- How the research was conducted
- References and bibliography

ELIGIBILITY

The Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize is open to all Tasmanian Year 9 students, as well as students who are undertaking home education at the same year level.

If selected as a Prize recipient, students must commit to attending all monthly educational meetings in the lead up to the Study Tour. See Key Dates on the next page.

AUTHENTICITY OF WORK

All entries submitted must be the student's original work. For digital presentations, this applies to all aspects including scripting, recording and editing.

Entries must not have been submitted in any other competition in previous years. However, students may submit the same or similar entry in the Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize as in other competitions / prizes in the same year.

REFERENCING

Any part of the entrant's work that has been taken from another source must be referenced in a format that is consistent and accurate.

There are two different methods to reference work, in-text citation or footnotes/endnotes. Please check with your teacher or school librarian and choose one.

Entries in the Frank MacDonald Memorial Prize do not require an annotated bibliography.
