

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

College Life

Durack College is a Christian values-based community of learners, which honours the heritage and philosophy of the Sisters of The Society of the Sacred Advent. We foster a positive culture and strong sense of community where residents contribute generously to daily college life in a nurturing, scholarly environment characterised by collegians who are compassionate, vital, curious and aspirational.

Collegians will have a strong sense of belonging built on the foundations of mutual trust, respect and ethical standards, which are reflected in College policies and expectations. Collegians will maintain and uphold the reputation of the College and broader Durack College community in the highest regard.

Can I study at any university in Brisbane?

Durack College is taking undergraduate and postgraduate students who intend to study or are already enrolled at University of Queensland (UQ), Queensland University of Technology (QUT), Griffith University, Australian Catholic University (ACU) and Torrens University. We will also consider other education institutions on a case by case basis.

Do you have to be a past St Margaret's student to be able to live at Durack College?

The College is open to all women and there are no restrictions on who can apply.

What support and pastoral care is provided?

One of the most significant aspects of living in a residential college is the encouragement and support you receive. If you are experiencing any difficulties with your studies or your personal life, the College Director and Senior Residential Assistant are available to offer support and help you settle in and make friends. Don't keep your problems to yourself. It is far more helpful to share them with someone so that you can find solutions.

Who lives onsite at the College?

The Senior Residential Assistant lives on site and is a student of the highest calibre who is either a senior student in their final years of study or a postgraduate student. The Senior Residential Assistant supports the College Director and provides guidance to students as well as valuable academic and pastoral support.

Do I have to sign in and out if I want to leave?

You do not have to sign in and out if you want to leave. The College operates on a system of trust and there are no restrictions on overnight or weekend leave. However, it is expected that if you are not returning to College that you inform the College Director or Senior Residential Assistant. Your personal safety and welfare is our highest priority.

What safety and security measures are in place?

The College is set in a quiet garden enclave adjacent the school grounds and provides a safe and secure environment in the northern suburb of Ascot. After-hours security regularly patrol the College and lock up of an evening, but all residents have access to the College at all times through the swipe card access. External security lights have also been installed on the College buildings and service road leading up to the College.

What are the academic expectations at College?

You are preparing yourselves for your future careers, so it is important for you to plan your study program and commit yourselves to doing the best you can. The College expects that you will take this responsibility seriously. The College Director is well acquainted with the operations of the various Universities and available to discuss any topic that interests or concerns you.

Residents are required to maintain satisfactory academic progress and achieve a cumulative GPA of 4.0 each semester. If your cumulative GPA drops below a 4.0, your College membership may be at risk, although this depends on circumstances and is reviewed on a case by case basis.

What academic support is available?

The College provides academic support in the form of tutorials, which are customised to enhance the specific learning objectives of the College residents. Tutors will be made up of teams of under graduate and post graduate students, who will provide a high standard of academic expertise to assist you with your studies.

What is the Student Success Program and how will I be involved?

The Student Success Program incorporates a personalised female mentoring and leadership program, a social responsibility program and opportunities for employment at St Margaret's Anglican Girls School. Depending on your university commitments, it is anticipated that you will participate in the program as it will equip you with life skills and opportunities to help you confidently navigate life beyond school.

St Margaret's Anglican Girls School also offer employment opportunities, where available, to residents who may choose to take up casual work in boarding duties, tutoring, coaching or administrative work.

Is the College involved in any sporting competitions?

The College is not currently linked to a dedicated sporting competition, however, the College Director is looking at ways to engage in competitions such as invitational events. Depending on interest, there will be opportunities for College residents to participate in club sports competitions.

What social events and activities are organised for residents at the College?

The College has a welcome event, orientation activities, formal dinners and end of year celebrations. Other social activities are student driven and you will have an opportunity to play an active role in the daily life of the College, including developing the program for college activities.

Is there internet access and do I pay for downloads?

You have access to free wireless Wi-Fi and there are no limits on downloads. You also have access to IT help desk support during office hours. Responsible use of the service is expected and we reserve the right to withdraw the service from disruptive users as required. Residents are required to comply with the College Acceptable Use of Technology Policy.
