About the RGS Special Circumstances Bursary: A Bursary is awarded to a boy or girl whose parents are unable, for financial reasons, to enrol or continue to enrol their son or daughter at the School. The following criteria are considered in making this award:

- The boy or girl should be a member of a family in which there is a demonstrated and authentic need of financial assistance;
- He or she should be of good character, be conscientious in his/her studies and his/her level of achievement should be sound; and
- This application only applies to the school year in which the Bursary is awarded. Renewals, or continuance of the Bursary in subsequent years, are subject to ongoing demonstrated financial need and application, as well as satisfactory reports to the Headmaster about the student's academic achievements, participation in Co-curricular activities and contributions to the School community.
